Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, (Making Disciples For Jesus)

Financial Peace University:
Mark your calendars, FPU is coming here! Beginning on Feb. 2nd, and running on Thursdays at 7 at the Cigna Center through March 30th,
come gain financial peace
following Dave Ramsey's system of budgeting and
saving.
Space is limited (I believe we only have room for 4-5
more couples), so please visit their website to register.

This is more expensive than
most adult formation classes
we offer here, so while Mr.
Ramsey doesn't let churches
directly subsidize the cost
like most other programs, I am happy to help out. Don't let cost keep you away! I believe its one of the best investments you could make, financially speaking.
If you're interested in childcare, let me know, and we can provide that.

Ash Wednesday falls right
in the middle of this time frame, so feel free to let this
be your Lenten resolution.

Claiming Jesus as King
requires
humility, so
I'd like to offer one of
the most helpful and
challenging
prayers I've found to grow
consistently
in this great virtue. Feel free to cut it
out and tape
it to a bathroom
mirror or
some other
place you'll
be reminded to
pray:

Litany of Humility

Jesus, meek and humble of heart, Hear me.
From the desire of being esteemed,
Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being loved...
From the desire of being extolled ...
From the desire of being honored ...
From the desire of being praised ...
From the desire of being preferred to others...
From the desire of being consulted ...
From the desire of being approved ...
From the fear of being humiliated ...
From the fear of being despised...
From the fear of suffering rebukes ...
From the fear of being calumniated ...
From the fear of being forgotten ...
From the fear of being ridiculed ...
From the fear of being wronged ...
From the fear of being suspected ...

That others may be loved more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I ...
That, in the opinion of the world,
others may increase and I may decrease ...
That others may be chosen and I set aside ...
That others may be praised and I unnoticed ...
That others may be preferred to me in everything...
That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should...

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

May this day be filled with blessings of peace upon all who gather in the name of the Lord Jesus, King of the Universe.

Marriage Minute

“If you are a King..., save yourself.” As we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King this Sunday, we gain an important lesson in authority that we can apply to our families. The scoffing onlookers (those who did not know Christ) represent the mistaken notion that authority is meant for the benefit of the one who possesses it. Christ teaches the opposite; true authority is intended and given to display generosity and given for the benefit of those served. In marriage and parenting, it can be easy to sit back and wait for others to earn our service or respect, but this is a self-serving attitude and a misuse of authority. Christ calls us to something greater and more fulfilling. Respect is gained when it is given. Joy is gained when service is offered. For practical applications of other centered authority and love, go to www.joyfulmarriageproject.com

“God’s Little Green Acre” Seminarian

Support You are invited to join Catholics across the Archdiocese in giving thanks for our seminarians and support them as they study for the priesthood. Farmers can donate the proceeds from one acre of their crops, and those who don’t farm but want to “grow” vocations can make a donation in any amount. This Christmas the donations will be divided among our seminarians to help them pay for textbooks and living expenses. They greatly appreciate these funds since they have no income. For questions call 913-647-0303 or email vocation@archkck.org. Mail donations to: Arch KCK Vocation office, 12615 Parallel Pkwy, Kansas City, KS 66109.

Parish Council: The parish council met this past week. Included in the discussion was finalizing the plan for our facilities. We will meet again in the next couple weeks to finish a few details, and you can look for an announcement about the path forward in the first half of December.

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

The Holy Spirit in his wisdom inspired the writers of the Bible to use many different names to describe Jesus. Titles such as, Messiah, Savior, Shepherd, Teacher, Lord, Son of God, and Son of Man, describe both the nature and work of Jesus and the rightful position he should hold in our lives. This Sunday we celebrate Jesus with the title "Christ the King." An historical review of various kings of this world, whether it is an overview of biblical kings, or an overview of secular kings, reveals a mix of good and evil characters. In effect people who lived up to their position of being king, and people who did not. The dictionary speaks of a king as one who has sovereign power and authority, one who has dignity and royal bearing, one who holds a preeminent or superior position, one who has character and splendor of a regal quality, and as one who inherits his position and rules for life. Jesus fits all of these descriptions and then some. Even when he was arrested, beaten and crucified it was obvious that he was in charge, exercising his sovereign authority. As he indicated in John 19 no one could have touched him without his permission. Allowing himself to be put in the most undignified and degrading position in order to secure our salvation, he retained his dignity. Observers like the soldier and the thief seeing his regal demeanor, even though they did not know how to name it, recognized his royalty and deity. We need not answer the question, "Is Christ the King?" Of that there is no doubt. The questions we need to answer are:  "To what extent is Christ the King of my life?"  "To what extent do I allow him to sovereignly rule over my actions, thoughts, attitudes, and possessions?"  "Of all the people, myself included, who have a claim on my life, to what extent does he have the preeminent and superior claim?" Jesus is a benevolent King, ruling in splendor but without demanding allegiance or obedience. In his sovereignty he is a loving ruler who allows his subjects voluntary compliance to his authority. Those who surrender their will to his rule discover not only his graciousness, but also the superiority of his Kingdom over the kingdom of self. This superiority was aptly expressed by Dr. S.M. Lockridge in his famous sermon, "My King Is." Here is a portion of how he described Christ the King. "...my King is a king of the Jews. That's a racial king. He's a king of Israel. That's a national king. He's a king of righteousness. He's a king of the ages. He's the king of heaven. He's a king of glory. He's the King of Kings and He's the Lord of Lords. ... My king is a sovereign king. No means of measure can define His limitless love. No far seeing telescope can bring into visibility the coastline of His shoreless supply. No barrier can hinder Him from pouring out His blessing. He's enduringly strong. He's entirely sincere. He's eternally steadfast. He's immortally graceful. He's imperially powerful. He's impartially merciful ... He's God's Son. He's a sinner's savior. He's the centerpiece of civilization ... He supplies strength for the weak. He's available for the tempted and tried. He sympathizes and He saves. He strengthens and sustains. He guards and He guides. He heals the sick. He cleanses the lepers. He forgives sinners. He discharges beggars. He delivers the captive. He defends the people. He blesses the young. He serves the unfortunate. He regards the aged. He rewards the diligent and He beautifies the meek. I wonder if you know him?" Jesus — Christ the King — is all of this and more. Should we choose to live as members of his Kingdom and as people who honor him with a life of devotion and obedience? The only logical response is, "Yes!" This is the Sunday to reaffirm his kingship in our life. As we receive Eucharist let's also receive his rule in our life.
