The Most Holy Trinity

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

O, MOST HOLY TRINITY

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. That statement is worth unpacking. All other mysteries of our faith flow from the revelation of this mystery.

It is revealed in this way: Many religions call God as Father because he is creator; we call him as Father first because of an intensely more profound reason: He is Father in relation to the Son. Jesus gives us this knowledge in the fullness of time. As we celebrated last week, the Spirit (first mentioned at the dawn of creation) is fully revealed on Pentecost, coming upon the Apostles gathered with Mary in prayer. The Most Blessed Trinity is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the hierarchy of truths of faith. The whole history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin.

Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit. The Trinity is a mystery of faith in the strict sense, one of the mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God. To be sure, God has left traces of his Trinitarian being in his work of creation and in his Revelation throughout the Old Testament. But his inmost

Being as Holy Trinity is a mystery that is inaccessible to reason along or even to Israel's faith before the Incarnation of God's Son and the sending of the Holy Spirit.

These lines from CCC 232-260 are a few of the gems worth reading time and again. Because all salvation history and our path to heaven bear the image of the complete self-giving love of the Trinity, all teachings of the Church, from Marriage and the Eucharist, to fasting and almsgiving, flow from this faith. Please continue to strive to be the image and likeness of God.

FATHER SON HOLY SPIRIT

PRAISE THE HOLY TRINITY—

UNDIVIDED UNITY

HOLY GOD, MIGHTY GOD, GOD IMMORTAL BE ADORED.

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

The Holy Trinity is an integral part of our faith, the understanding of which is often under emphasized. Holy Trinity Sunday was introduced into the church by Pope John XXII in the 1300's to honor the Trinity of Persons in God. Throughout the Scriptures we see various passages which bring out the reality of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, their unity, and the various roles they fulfill to accomplish their will. Ephesians 4:4-6 is one such passage; "There is one body and one Spirit, ... one Lord, ... one God and Father of us all." As in this passage, an overriding characteristic of the Holy Trinity is their unity and oneness. The Holy Trinity is united in bringing about our salvation, as we see in Ephesians 1:1-14, and united in bringing about our unity and oneness. Interestingly, this unity and oneness of his Body is integral to advancing the Gospel. How scandalous it is for us who name the name of Christ, to live with, and in some cases foster ungodly divisions among ourselves. The following quote from the Catechism of the Catholic Church reveals the importance of this oneness to the spread of the Gospel. "Thus the Church confesses, following the new Testament, 'one God and Father from whom all things are, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things are, and one Holy Spirit in whom all things are' . . . Hence the whole Christian life is a communion with each of the divine persons, without in any way separating them. Everyone who glorifies the Father does so through the Son in the Holy Spirit; everyone who follows Christ does so because the Father draws him and the Spirit moves him."

How can we honor the Holy Trinity? First and foremost is by cooperating with the Trinity in the work of salvation. If we have ever held back a part of ourselves from fully believing and surrendering to Christ and his gracious offer of salvation for us, if we have consented only with our head and not our heart and will, we can honor the Holy Trinity by a simple prayer of surrender and welcome. Those of us who have already done so, can pause and reflect on our previous commitment, asking the Holy Trinity to reveal to us areas where we need to conform to the Father's will in different or deeper ways. Perhaps we can ask the Holy Spirit to show us how we might be more actively involved in the Trinity's work of bringing the Good News of salvation to our world. In addition, we can pause to offer a special prayer of thanksgiving for the Holy Trinity's presence in our life, and tell the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit of our love for them. "O my God, Trinity whom I adore, help me forget myself entirely so to establish myself in you, unmovable and peaceful as if my soul were already in eternity. May nothing be able to trouble my peace or make me leave you, O my unchanging God, but may each minute bring me more deeply into your mystery! Grant my soul peace. Make it your heaven, your beloved dwelling and the place of your rest. May I never abandon you there, but may I be there, whole and entire, completely vigilant in my faith, entirely adoring, and wholly given over to your creative action." 1 Prayer of the Blessed Elizabeth of the Trinity, taken from the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The Altar Society will again do the "Silent Auction" at the annual church bazaar in August, in lieu of the Country Store. Last year the project brought in $800. Let's make even more this year! Get on your thinking caps for great ideas for individual items or basket themes. Some families may want to go together to make an even "bigger" theme if you like. Get your ideas to the Altar Society so that we can be even more organized this year! Thanks for your support for a great cause, our parish community.

CONGRATULATIONS to Jayden Elaine Lundberg, daughter of Corey and Jayme Lundberg who was baptized at St. Columbkille Parish this weekend. Her sponsors are Russell Rezac and Angie Lundberg.

Please pick up the new hospitality listing today after church if you did not receive one when entering tonight. If your names was left off please let me know and we will get you on. If you don't want to be on the listing please let me know. I tried to contact those who we weren't sure about. Thank You Pat Wulf and Natha Manges
