The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

In honor of the greatest gift of Jesus, the Eucharist, I offer you the hymn of St. Thomas Aquinas, which to this day hasn't been surpassed in expressing our
gratitude, love, praise,
hope, joy, and desire in such a wondrous gift.

Adoro te devoto

I devoutly adore you, O
hidden Deity,

Truly hidden beneath
these appearances.

My whole heart submits
to you,

And in contemplating you, It surrenders itself completely.

Sight, touch, taste are all deceived in their
judgment of you,

But hearing suffices

firmly to believe.

I believe all that the Son of God has spoken;

There is nothing truer
than the Word of Truth.

On the cross only the
divinity was hidden,
But here the humanity
is also hidden.

Yet believing and
confessing both,
I ask for what the
repentant thief asked.

I do not see the wounds
as Thomas did,

But I confess that you are my God.

Make me believe more
and more in you,

Hope in you, and love
you.

O memorial of our Lord's death!

Living bread that gives
life to man,
Grant my soul to live on
you,

And always to savor
your sweetness.

Lord Jesus,
Good Pelican,

wash my filthiness and
clean me with your
blood,

One drop of which can
free

the entire world of all its sins.

Jesus, whom now I see hidden,

I ask you to fulfill what I
so desire:

That the sight of your
face being unveiled

I may have the happiness of seeing your glory. Amen.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

(Annunciation Building Projects: Look next weekend for an envelope/pledge card for all registered families of Annunciation for our building projects. We are waiting on the Chancellor to return to the office Monday for the approval to be sent. I'm trying not to get the cart before the horse.)

A PRAYER FOR FATHERS

“God our Father, We give thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family, and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost and suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow. We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice. We remember fathers, grandfathers, great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen”

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

Parents lovingly putting another spoonful of baby food into the eager mouth of a growing infant is an expression both of love and provision. Yet early in their growth, toddlers endeavor to wrestle the spoon from their parents in an often humorous expression of their independence. They subtly state, "I can do it myself!" as they smear more food around their head than they get in their mouth. This quest for independence is manifest early in our lives, however later it often gets in the way of our truly relying on Christ for our spiritual sustenance. How we respond to Jesus as the Bread of Life often has to do with our willingness to depend solely on him for our nourishment. For most adults it is humbling to have to depend upon another for our sustenance. It is hard on our pride to be totally dependent. Yet the revealed truth is that our spiritual food and drink cannot be earned, or wrestled from the fist of God, we can only open our heart and freely receive it as it is freely given. "A meal is a very intimate gift, and sadly, many of us have forgotten the deep meaning behind it ... when we receive food, we are given the wherewithal to live. The giver is, in fact, saying to us: 'I want you to live.' This intimate sign is deepened when we go to the trouble of preparing and cooking the food. When we sit down and share the meal, we are saying, 'I want to draw life from the same source as you.' Jesus goes further than we can go, he becomes the food and drink. He is saying to us: 'Not only do I want you to live, but I want you to live through Me.'" 1 The Feast of Corpus Christi (The Most Holy and Blood of Christ Sunday) commemorates the presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It was first initiated by St. Juliana of Cornillon. St. Juliana received a vision in which she was told that this feast honoring the Body and Blood of Christ was missing in the liturgical calendar and should be added. She was much opposed by some from her own religious order and suffered at their treatment. However, she shared her vision with and received support from the future Pope Urban IV, who upon becoming Pope sanctioned this feast in 1264. Later Pope Clement V mandated that the feast should be observed throughout the Catholic world. The Eucharist is, of course, central to our Catholic faith. It is the source from which we gain spiritual strength and vitality and the summit of saving faith as we remember and receive Jesus who suffered for us. This being so, you would think that we would not need to have a special feast day to celebrate Jesus' Body and Blood, inasmuch as we should be celebrating it at each mass as we receive him. By the ready availability of this heavenly meal, like our daily nourishment, we sometimes take it for granted and treat it with a familiarity that breeds ingratitude. Consequently, this feast day functions much like Thanksgiving does for many Americans. It is a time to pause and reflect with gratitude in a special way and with a special feast, to recall that with which we have been especially blessed. This is a Sunday in which we can pause and recognize our dependence, and receive him not only into our mouth but also into a grateful heart. This annual feast must remind us that as we receive Jesus' Body and Blood in the Eucharist that he made the ultimate sacrifice for us, and it should elicit from us not only willing dependence on him but an invitation to Jesus to abide in us providing true life. Let us pray in the words of St. Thomas à Kempis, "Lord, all things in Heaven and earth are Yours. I desire to give myself to You as a free offering, and to be Yours for ever. O Lord, in simplicity of heart I offer myself to You this day, to be Your servant for ever: I do this as an act of homage to You, and as an act of perpetual praise." 2 1 Ian Petit in This Is My Body. 2 The Imitation of Christ, p. 199.

Attention Parish Families

The Altar Society will again do the "Silent Auction" at the annual church bazaar in August, in lieu of the Country Store. Last year the project brought in $800. Let's make even more this year! Get on your thinking caps for great ideas for individual items or basket themes. Some families may want to go together to make an even "bigger" theme if you like. Get your ideas to the Altar Society so that we can be even more organized this year! Thanks for your support for a great cause, our parish community.

Please pick up the new hospitality listing today after church if you did not receive one when entering tonight. If your names was left off please let me know and we will get you on. If you don't want to be on the listing please let me know. I tried to contact those who we weren't sure about. Thank You Pat Wulf and Natha Manges
