Fasting and Abstinence during Lent

To sum up those requirements, Catholics between ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. In addition, all Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all Fridays of Lent. Fasting as explained by the U.S. bishops means partaking of only one full meal. Some food (not equaling another full meal) is permitted at breakfast and around midday or in the evening—depending on when a person chooses to eat the main or full meal.

Abstinence forbids the use of meat, but not eggs, fish, milk products or condiments made of animal fat.

“Lent is a new beginning, a path leading to the certain goal of Easter, Christ’s victory over death. This season urgently calls us to conversion. Lent is the favorable season for renewing our encounter with Christ who lives in his word, in the sacraments and in our neighbor. Once again Lent comes to make its prophetic appeal, to remind us that it is possible to create something new within ourselves and around us. Let us not waste this season of Lent, so favorable a time for conversion!”

Journey Through Scripture: The Bible and the Virgin Mary!

This Spring’s adult faith opportunity is a bible study of the Blessed Virgin in Sacred Scripture. “What the Catholic faith believes about Mary is based on what it believes about Christ, and what it teaches about Mary illumines in turn its faith in Christ” (CCC 487). Following the pattern of Scripture and the Fathers of the Church, The Bible and the Virgin Mary examines the role of Mary in salvation history. Through a method called typology (see CCC 128–130), we’ll study her role as the New Eve, the Ark of the New Covenant, and the Queen Mother. This study also examines Catholic doctrine with regard to the Blessed Virgin, answering common objections along the way. We will start Feb 19th, the 1st Monday of Lent at noon at the parish house in Frankfort. There are 12 sessions, so we will either double up some of them or extend it through the Easter season. If you would like to order a workbook, please contact Desiray Schreiner or the parish office. Alternatively, you can print out the study sheets or bring a phone/tablet with you.

MARRIAGE MINUTE- "The Super Bowl of Life" It's kickoff time! When you hear that, you are probably thinking of the Super Bowl, which is one of the most "sacred" events of our secular culture. However, in addition to crowning a football champion this weekend, it is also time to kick off National Marriage Week. While National Marriage Week does not have the pomp and circumstance that the football game has, perhaps it should. Super Bowl Sunday is a great opportunity to gain insight on how to strive for excellence in our own marriage. What if we approached our marriage in the same way these incredible athletes approached this game? To kick off your more intentional marriage, consider the Living in Love retreat at Holy Spirit in Overland Park Feb 10-11. www.archkck.org/livinginlove.

LIVING IN LOVE RETREAT

St. Peter & Paul Youth Center
Saturday March 17 & Sunday March 18
Time: Saturday- 8am -9pm Romantic Dinner included at 7pm Sunday- 8:30am -3pm Mass will be at either 9am or 11am(TBD)
Light breakfast of juice, coffee, bagels, & donuts served both mornings.

Couples are encouraged to bring a light snack to share with the group (examples....chips/salsa, trail mix, fruit/veggies to name a few) this way everyone has something on the breaks to refuel with! Overall the retreat is there to refuel or "tune up" marriages. It doesn't matter if you have been married 6 months or 60 years couples of all ages enjoy this. Most guys are pleasantly surprised at how the retreat affects them as most tend to drag their feet in wanting to attend. It really sends the focus of the family back to the main reason there is a family, husband and wife, and it draws them closer in order to grow their love for one another, or maybe just fan the flame that has died down a bit over time. If any couples need help with childcare we do have resources for that as well. Questions contact Kristin & Dan Tangeman kdtang@bbwi.net or 785-336-0031 785-336-1804 (Kristin's cell)

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

My mother died at 97 years of age and it intrigues me to imagine the changes people of her generation have seen in their lifetime. Transportation has moved from horse and buggy to space travel; housing has experienced innovations that went from out-houses to multiple baths with conveniences like whirlpool tubs; kitchens have moved from open hearth to microwave; from vegetable cellars to refrigerator-freezers; from cooking supper to eating out, etc. etc. We live in the wonderful world of change! With all these wonderful technological innovations one would expect that our lives would become more enjoyable and more relaxed. Instead, we have become the most stressed filled generation of all time, and it only gets worse. Terms like "road rage" and "going postal" have become common place as have reports of disasters reeked on others by stress filled individuals. Christians also, are not exempt from this stress and pressure. In addition to coping with all of these modern changes and the pressure life creates, they have added to their lives the demands of being and doing all that their faith requires. There is no shortage of well meaning individuals who through messages, books, and the electronic media lay one expectation after another on our plate, spelling out the many things we must do to be a faithful Christian. Consequently, we often feel pulled in many directions, running faster and faster, with less and less joy, trying to fulfill the expectations of others. Jesus, being fully human, also lived amid considerable pressure. He experienced people besieging him for help in overcoming sickness, disease, demon possession, and the many ills of society. Multitudes followed him continually; some to listen and learn, while others, intent on tripping him up, listened to his every word only so that they could accuse him. Both the general population and Jesus' disciples conveyed expectations to him of what he should do and be. How did Jesus avoid succumbing to the stress and pressure life brought on him? Why did he not become angry and stressed-out? First of all, Jesus maintained a life that was centered on the Father, and on doing his Father's will. This, singleness of purpose and desire to please the Father in everything, brought calmness in the midst of turmoil, and clear direction to his life. All other expectations were perceived and evaluated through this singular lens of the Father's revealed will. Second, Jesus, being fully human, consistently took time to commune with God the Father through periods of private prayer. Out of these times of aloneness with the Father Jesus found direction, strength and determination to keep his saving mission. And for us also, it is in our moments of solitude with the Father that we are able to become anchored spiritually, to discover and re-discover who we are, why we are created, and how we should live. From these times of reflection and prayer come the life-giving relationship with the Father that enables us to go forth in peace, being peace bearers to those around us. That which Pope John Paul II stated in On the Coming of the Third Millennium remains true for us; "In order to recognize who Christ truly is, Christians, especially in the course of this year, should turn with
