The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

SEASON OF LENT BEGINS ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14TH Mass Schedule

12 pm—Blue Rapids

5:30 pm—Blaine

7:00 pm—Frankfort

Remember.....

Fasting and Abstinence during Lent

To sum up those requirements, Catholics between ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. In addition, all Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all Fridays of Lent. Fasting as explained by the U.S. bishops means partaking of only one full meal. Some food (not equaling another full meal) is permitted at breakfast and around midday or in the evening—depending on when a person chooses to eat the main or full meal.

Abstinence forbids the use of meat, but not eggs, fish, milk products or condiments made of animal fat.

With its invitation to conversion, Lent comes providentially to awaken us, to rouse us from our spiritual sluggishness. The Lord addresses to us through the prophet Joel. Why must we return to God? Because something is not right in us, not right in society, not right in the Church and we need to change and give it new direction. And this is called needing to convert! Once again Lent reminds us that it is possible to create something new within ourselves and around us, simply because God is faithful, always faithful, for God cannot deny himself. Let us set out on the journey!

Journey Through Scripture: The Bible and the Virgin Mary!

This Spring's adult faith opportunity is a bible study of the Blessed Virgin in Sacred Scripture. "What the Catholic faith believes about Mary is based on what it believes about Christ, and what it teaches about Mary illumines in turn its faith in Christ" (CCC 487). Following the pattern of Scripture and the Fathers of the Church, The Bible and the Virgin Mary examines the role of Mary in salvation history. Through a method called typology (see CCC 128–130), we'll study her role as the New Eve, the Ark of the New Covenant, and the Queen Mother. This study also examines Catholic doctrine with regard to the Blessed Virgin, answering common objections along the way. We will start Feb 19th, the 1st Monday of Lent at noon at the parish house in Frankfort. There are 12 sessions, so we will either double up some of them or extend it through the Easter season. If you would like to order a workbook, please contact Desiray Schreiner or the parish office. Alternatively, you can print out the study sheets or bring a phone/tablet with you.

CRS RICE BOWL—Join our faith community—and nearly 14,000 Catholic communities across the United States—in a life-changing Lenten journey of encounter with CRS Rice Bowl. COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN CENTRAL & EASTERN EUROPE—Our shared faith is deeply present in the cultures of Central & Eastern Europe, but this faith was severely tested over the course of the previous century. Countries in this region were under communist rule for 40 to over 70 years. During this time, bishops, priests, and church leaders were arrested and martyred. Churches were confiscated, communities broken, and people were forced to practice the faith in secret. Despite this religious persecution, the faithful in Central & Eastern Europe today are rebuilding and renewing what was lost—and you can help. With your support of the Collection for the Church in Central & Eastern Europe (CCEE), you aid those who strive to rebuild their faith communities. Please be generous to the collection.

FRANKFORT FOOD PANTRY— Please help us support our local food pantry. There is a basket in the back of church to drop off non-perishable food items.

NOTICE -

The Annunciation Icon that was hanging on the east wall in the Cigna Center is missing. If anyone has seen it or knows of it's whereabouts please contact Fr. Schmitz or Marilyn in the Parish Office.

MARRIAGE MINUTE- Solitary Confinement When things are difficult in our marriage, we can often isolate ourselves. We can feel like the lepers in this weekend's readings, waiting for rejection from others we think will consider us "unclean." This is reinforced when we see others who seem to have minimal problems. Like the lepers, the problems themselves seem so much bigger when faced alone. When Jesus healed the lepers, he not only ended their physical suffering, but invited them back into community. If you are hurting in your marriage, he wants to heal your hurts and put you back in relationship with your spouse and with His Church. • Find a counselor at www.archkck.org/catholic-counselors • Talk to a couple you trust • Learn a proactive and healthy way to reconcile through the Everyday in Love program, www.archkck.org/everyday.

Couples are encouraged to bring a light snack to share with the group (examples....chips/salsa, trail mix, fruit/veggies to name a few) this way everyone has something on the breaks to refuel with! Overall the retreat is there to refuel or "tune up" marriages. It doesn't matter if you have been married 6 months or 60 years couples of all ages enjoy this. Most guys are pleasantly surprised at how the retreat affects them as most tend to drag their feet in wanting to attend. It really sends the focus of the family back to the main reason there is a family, husband and wife, and it draws them closer in order to grow their love for one another, or maybe just fan the flame that has died down a bit over time. If any couples need help with childcare we do have resources for that as well. Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

Jesus rightly earned the title, “Great Physician.” Again and again Jesus demonstrated his power and deity by confronting every disease presented to him with complete and thorough healing. Moved by compassion, Jesus confronted leprosy, blindness, congenital lameness, and even death was compelled to respond to Jesus’ power. He did not differentiate between the illnesses of Jew or Gentile, both alike received his loving touch. Though Jesus’ compassion was exceptional, and his healing in much demand, we do not get the impression that the physical wellbeing of people was Jesus’ primary concern. Today’s Gospel reading in Mark coupled with last Sunday’s reading, provide a composite of Jesus’ many acts of gracious healing. When the disciples arrived saying that “everyone is searching for you,” their statement sounded like a mild rebuke of Jesus, implying, “Come on get busy healing these people.” Yet Jesus was compelled to move on to other towns to preach the Good News. The very existence of this reality indicates that there is a greater tragedy than physical sickness; the tragedy of a diseased, spiritually sick soul, estranged from God. Unlike Jesus, and very much like the disciples, we often see physical infirmities and suffering as the worst of evils. We also are greatly moved, and rightly so, by the plight of others’ physical grief. Unlike Jesus, and very much like the disciples, we often are oblivious to the greater human tragedy of a life lived apart from God. Few of us are miracle workers, and only some are truly trained to help with physical healing of disease and infirmity. Still, we can and should provide comfort and aid to others during their times of physical duress. But when it comes to providing help and healing for those sick of soul and estranged from God we can bring healing power. Like the leper, we can relate the experience of our own spiritual healing, and more importantly we can introduce them to the “Great Physician,” Jesus. Fr. Henri J.M. Nouwen in the book With Burning Hearts, captures the dilemma of our times; “We live in a world groaning under its losses ... It is a world of endless losses, and many, if not most, of our fellow human beings walk with faces downcast on the surface of this planet. They say in some way or another: ‘Our hope had been...but we lost our hope.’”¹ Hope is a terrible thing to lose, and almost impossible to live without. It is not the affects of physical circumstances alone that rob people of hope, but the fear that their world and life are out of control, and they despair that nobody cares, and nobody has the power to do anything about it. Yet each week we participate in a celebration of the Savior Lord and receive him who is Hope personified, who has proven his love for us and his power to help. We are holding the antidote that can cure them of the poison of despair if we only will share it. As Nouwen explains, “We recognize him, but that recognition is not just for us to savor or to keep as a secret ... Go and tell. What you have heard and seen is not just for yourself. It is for the brothers and sister and for all who are ready to receive it. Go, don’t linger, don’t wait, don’t hesitate, but move now and return to the places from which you came, and let those whom you left behind in their hiding places know that there is nothing to be
